Lumbermen are complaining that the swamps are not frozen. Several inches of snow fell before any very cold weather had had a chance to make the swamps solid, and now they are covered with nearly a foot of snow which will prevent them from freezing for some time.

Fully 3,000 men have been sent to the woods this winter from St. Paul. About 400 of them have gone to Mille Lacs and Rum River and the balance on the Upper Mississippi, including Prairie, Swan and Vermilion rivers. Quite an improvement has been made in the mail service on the Northern Pacific road within the past week. The case F. N. Muzzy against the town of Oakawa, being an appeal from an order of the supervisor of that town in laying out a road through Muzzy's land and failing to award damages in which a jury was called to hear the matter and ascertain if there was any damages to award, came up before the Municipal court Tuesday, being transferred from the Oakawa Justice on change of venue. The case was continued one week.

An article in the Minneapolis Evening Journal of Saturday last, purporting to be an interview with R. B. Langdon, does this county and city a great injustice. Mr. Langdon is quoted as saying "that Brainerd is not to be considered in the context for the location of the second asylum for the insane, and that the soil around Brainerd is very poor." Mr. Langdon knows very well that Crow Wing county was awarded the premium for county exhibits at the state fair one year ago last fall.

Two girls, aged 13 and 8, the children of Mrs. Heath, were taken to the reform school Thursday by officer Cross. These girls had been in the habit of stealing everything they could lay their hands on and the day before they were sent away they nipped two pair of shoes from Day & Meagher's and a hand sled from Conklin & Clark's.

He said the habit was growing on them and she wanted them put where they could sin no more.

The Perham Bulletin says that Al. Pelton, the popular lumberman of the park region started a fire into the woods near Brainerd on Thursday last where they will put in good hard work for the winter. He sent four as the four horse teams from this place as is to be sent to the camps, the highest horse weighing 1,400 pounds and running as high as 1,800. Mr. Pelton understands his business and always comes "out of the woods" in good shape in the spring. He is still contracting with N. P. Clark, the same as in the year past.

At the last session of the state legislature the laws relating to the term of office of county commissioners were amended so that the terms of all commissioners elected in 1884 expire Jan. 1, 1887, and their successors elected this year, hold in the old numbered districts, their offices for two years and in the even numbered districts for four years, thus insuring a continuous county board. This gives the two year terms to commissioners Martin, Fogelstrom and Patterson and the four year terms to Gardner and Farrar.

A welcome notice.

That Dam Business.

A meeting of the citizens was held at the Villard Wednesday afternoon to look into the matter of the location and which the people are desirous of having near the old ferry. This place the dam company finds impracticable on account of not being able to get a clear title to a land on which the west abutment must rest from Chas. Ahrens, he having appealed from the award. A committee consisting of L. P. White, Geo. Holland and J. H. Koop was appointed to see if it was possible to overcome this difficulty and also to see what arrangements could be made in regard to the damage that would arise by overflow beyond that site and the brick yard site. In case no arrangements can be made active work will be commenced at the up river site, nearly all the piling and considerable other timber having been already cut. The building of this dam will be a good thing for Brainerd no matter where it is put but there is a divided opinion as to which place would benefit us the most. There is no doubt but that the majority of our citizens desire to see the improvements located as near the city as possible for if the upper site is selected there is no doubt but that a small berg would spring up around it and although in the city limits it would not cause the immediate result to real estate and other interests that is desired. The DISPATCH would like to see the dam located where the majority of the people want it but if that is impossible then the best available place. It is now expected that the improvements will be completed by July next.

Frozen to Death.

Monday afternoon two men came in from Brown's camp on Pine river, about 30 miles north of Brainerd with the remains of Joseph Hill who was found by a hunter on Sunday some ten miles from Brainerd. It seems that Hill had been sent to Deerwood for some axes and blankets which he was to pack into camp the distance being about 15 miles. He started Wednesday morning of last week, and reached his destination all right. Here he got his things and started back, the load he was carrying weighing about 40 pounds. He passed a settler on his way who asked him to come in and see him but Hill replied that he was not cold and to the question as to whether he had any matches he replied that he did, it seeming to the farmer that it was a perilous journey for the cold night. Nothing more was heard of him until he was found by the hunter. He had this in his bundle away when about ten miles out and pushed on but had gone only a mile farthur when he fell down but got up and dragged himself about a quarter of a mile part of the time on his hands and knees. Near where he was discovered was a few dry sticks and leaves that he had gathered together with the intention of starting a fire but he was either too far gone or had no matches as the pile had not been lighted. It is thought that the journey was too much for him, and that he was overcome by the exertion of making the trip in one day and before he knew it he was too far gone to help himself. He was 30 years old and unmarried and had only been at work a week at that place. His home is in Ripley county, Indiana, where a widowed mother lives and to which place the remains were taken on the Monday night train being accompanied by a brother who was at work in the same camp with him.

Annual Meeting.

At the annual meeting of the Crow Wing County Agricultural Society held at the office of the Secretary on Monday last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. J. Howe President, W. A. Smith Vice President, S. H. Reif Secretary, H. J. Spencer Treasurer.

Board of Managers—C. H. Douglas, C. D. Johnson, M. McFadden, Geo. W. Holland Henry Spalding, and W. W. Hartley.

The annual report of the Secretary was accepted and ordered on file, to-wit:

Membership tickets.....$22.00 Gate receipts.....$22.55 Booths.....48.00 Entrance.....129.00 State appropriation.....219.87 Subscriptions.....238.00 Balance on hand Jan. 1st, 1886.....114.45 Total.....$992.55

DISBURSEMENTS.

Labor and material.....$441.02 Premises and purses.....$80.00 Total.....$521.02

Balance in treasury.....$1.83

The condition of the society may be considered as prosperous when it is understood that the receipts of the first annual fair was but $322.35, the second $564.15 and the last one $992.55. It will be noticed that each year the income has doubled the receipts of the previous year and taking it from that rate next year the receipts will reach something like $2,000 and when the society will be in condition to erect more buildings and do ample justice to the institution. There has been rapid strides made in the agricultural line in this county in the last three years and our fair should be sustained by every business man as well as every farmer.

Scandalous Stories.

EDITOR DISPATCH—I wish to say a word in regard to the scandalous stories being circulated in regard to my husband's treatment of his family and which are entirely without foundation. I have lived with him thirteen years and am fully satisfied with him as a husband and father. My confidence being unbounded, having always found him to be faithful and true. His wages have always been brought to me and spent for the benefit of the family according to my best judgment. Two of my children are old enough to speak for themselves and I will refer the public to them as to their father's treatment. It was to save the life of his children that he left Duluth with them returning to the farm, hazarding his own life for their sake, even bringing the little coffin that held the form of one.

Wrongfully Informed.

We are informed that Mr. Cole, the train dispatcher at Brainerd, who made the fatal mistake by which the terrible accident occurred that deprived Mr. Tennis of life has been arrested and held over to the grand jury. Just what the charges in the complaint in we have not learned.—Sault Rapids Sentinel.

If Brother Benedict had read the report of the Coroner's jury which was published in all the St. Paul dailies he would not have published the above as it is untrue and misleading.

To Whom it may Concern.

I am to-day in receipt from the National Building Loan & Protective Union of the amount of loan applied for about 30 days ago. Considering the papers had to be returned, and we had to wait a short time on the abstract, I consider that they have lost no time in attending to my claim. I am well pleased with the organization, have received the amount asked for, it being the total amount of my shares, and I trust the Union may continue to grow in favor, as it is certainly worthy of the confidence and patronage of all. Its officers are men of first-class business ability, judging from their manner of doing business and the correspondence I have had with them, and believe them to be men of the strictest integrity.

It may not be generally understood but the states of Minnesota make it a mis-

Al. Gibson drove in from Brainerd last evening, and frosted an ear before he got here. When he found that it was only two degrees below zero he remarked that "a man ought to be ashamed for freezing his ears when it wasn't colder than that."

noon at 3 o'clock.

Howard Bullmer and Miss Melissa couple were very desirous of becoming one and they could obtain no license on Sunday, hence the earliness of the hour.

and all other ladies interested in Lumbermen are complaining that the swamps are not frozen. Several inches of snow fell before any very cold weather had had a chance to make the swamps solid, and now they are covered with nearly a foot of snow which will prevent them from freezing for some time.

Fully 3,000 men have been sent to the woods this winter from St. Paul. About 400 of them have gone to Mille Lacs and Rum River and the balance on the Upper Mississippi, including Prairie, Swan and Vermillion rivers. There are about 3,000 animals, which include horses, mules and oxen. The cut this winter will reach 300,000,000. lishment. They will sell at wholesale and retail and parties desiring car load lots can be accommodated. Venison, chickens, turkeys and all kinds of fresh

Quite an improvement has been made in the mail service on the Northern Pacific road within the past week. Here-before only the morning train to St. Paul and the evening train west has carried any mail but now in addition to this both day trains which arrive in Brainerd at 12:45 and 1:45 carry mail which will be a great convenience to our people.

The case F. N. Muzzy against the town of Oaklawn, being an appeal from an order of the supervisors of that town in laying out a road through Muzzy's land and failing to award damages in which a jury was called to hear the matter and ascertain if there was any damage to award, came up before the Municipal court Tuesday, being transferred from the Oaklawn case, and was heard by Judge Joseph Hill. The case was continued one week.

An article in the Minneapolis Evening Journal of Saturday last, purporting to be an interview with J. B. Langdon, does this county and city a great injustice. Mr. Langdon is quoted as saying "that Brainerd is not to be considered in the contest for the location of the second asylum for the insane, and that the soil around Brainerd is very poor." Mr. Langdon knows very well that Crow Wing county was awarded the premium for county exhibits at the state fair one year ago last fall.

Two girls, aged 13 and 8, the children of Mrs. Heath, were taken to the reform school Thursday by officer Cross. These girls had been in the act of stealing everything they could lay their hands on and the day before they were sent away they nipped two pair of shoes from Day & Meagher's and a hand sled said the habit was growing on them and she wanted them put where they could not see them.

There will be a regular meeting of Logan Camp No. 25, S. V. of A. G. R. headquarters, Saturday evening, Dec. 11, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. All who present themselves for muster on this evening will be enrolled upon the charter, and the fee will only be $1. After this meeting the charter list will be closed and the fees will be regular. Let all S. V.'s 18 years or over turn out. All G. A. R. comrades in good standing are cordially invited.

The Perham Bulletin says that Al.
Pelton, the popular lumberman of the park region started a crew into the woods near Brainerd on Thursday last where they will put in good hard work for the winter. He sent four as the four horse teams from this place as is sent to the camps, the lightest horse weighing 1,400 pounds and running as high as 1,800. Mr. Pelton understands his business and always comes "out of the woods" in good shape in the spring.
He is still contracting with N. P. Clark, the same as in the year past.

At the last session of the state legislature the laws relating to the term of office of county commissioners were amended so that the terms of all commissioners elected in 1884 expire Jan. 1, 1887, and their successors, elected this year, hold in the odd numbered districts, their offices for two years and in the even numbered districts for one year, thus insuring a continuous county board. This gives the two year terms to the districts below zero. Martin, Vol-strom and Patterson and the four year terms to Gardner and Farrar.

the ladies of Brainerd and vicinity that the ladies of the M. E. church are the country, and are unexcelled for style, ease of comprehension and cheapness.

That Dam Business.
A meeting of the citizens was held at the Villard Wednesday afternoon to locate the dam. The dam is to be located into the matter of the location and which the people are desirous of having near the old ferry. This place the dam company finds impracticable on account of not being able to get a clear title to the land on which the west abutment must rest from Chas. Ahrens, he having appealed from the award. A committee consisting of L. P. White, Geo. Holland and J. H. Koop was appointed to see if it was possible to overcome this difficulty and also to see what arrangements could be made in regard to the damage that would arise by overfloodage between that site and the brick yard site. In case no arrangements can be made active work will be commenced at the up river site, nearly all the piling and considerable other timber having been already cut.
The building of this dam will be a good thing for Brainerd no matter where it is put but there is a divided opinion as to which place would benefit us the most.
There is no doubt but that the majority of our citizens desire to see the improvements located as near the city as possible for if the upper site is selected there is no doubt but that a small berg would spring up around it and although in the city limits it would not cause the immediate result to real estate and other interested parties as desired. The Director would like to see the dam located where the majority of the people want it but if that is impossible we shall be satisfied to see it constructed at the most available place. It is now expected that the improvements will be completed by July next.

Frozen to Death.
Monday afternoon two men came in from Brown's camp on Pine river, about 30 miles north of Brainerd, with the remains of Joseph Hill. Hill was found by a hunter on Sunday some ten miles from Deerwood frozen stiff. It seems that Hill had been sent to Deerwood for some axes and blankets which he was to pack into camp the distance being about 15 miles. He started Wednesday morning of last week, which will be remembered as a very cold day, and reached his destination all right. Here he got his things and started back, the load he was carrying weighing about 40 pounds. He passed a settler on his way who asked him to come in and warm but Hill replied that he was not cold and to the question as to whether he had any matches he replied that he did, it seeming to the farmer that it was a perilous journey for the cold night. Nothing was heard of him until he was found by the hunter. He had then a bundle away when about ten miles out and pushed on but had gone only a mile farther when he fell down but got up and dragged himself about a quarter of a mile part of the time on his hands and knees. Near where he was discovered was a few dry sticks and leaves that he had gathered together with the intention of starting a fire but he was either too far gone or had no matches as the pile had not been lighted. It is thought that the journey was too much for him, and that he was overcome by the exertion of making the trip in one day and before he knew it he was too far gone to help himself. He was 30 years old and unmarried and had only been at work a week at that place. His home is in Ripley county, Indiana, where his widow and three children live and to which place the remains were taken on the Monday night train being accompanied by a brother who was at work in the same camp with him.

Balance in treasury.....$1 83
The condition of the society may be considered as prosperous when it is understood that the receipts of the first installment was but $22.50, the second $54.15 and the last one $92.55. It will be noticed that each year the income has doubled the receipts of the previous year and taking it from that rate next year the receipts will reach something like $2,000 and then the society will be in condition to erect more buildings and do some justice to the institution. There has been rapid strides made in the culture and the country in the last three years and our fair should be sustained by every business man as well as every farmer.

We are Tied!
Because of our Dress Goods sales the past month. Query: Why? Low prices, good assortment, good goods, no trouble to show them. "That's why."

Scandalous Stories.
EDITOR DRYGHER--I wish to say a word in regard to the scandalous stories being circulated in regard to my husband's treatment of his family and which are entirely without foundation. I have lived with him thirteen years and am fully satisfied with him as a husband and father, my confidence being unbounded, having always found him to be faithful and true. His wages have always been brought to me and spent for the benefit of the family according to my best judgement. Two of my children are old enough to speak for themselves and I will refer the public to them as to their father's treatment. It was to save the life of his children that he left Duluth with them returning to the farm, hazarding his own life for their sake, even bringing the little coffin that held the form of one.

Wrongfully Informed.
We are informed that Mr. Cole, the train dispatcher at Brainerd, who made the fatal mistake by which the terrible accident occurred that deprived Mr.
Tennil's life has been arrested and held over to the grand jury. Just what the charge in the complaint is we have not learned. -Sault Rapids Sentinel.

If Brother Benedict had read the report of the Coroner's jury which was published in all the St. Paul dailies he would not have published the above as it is untrue and misleading.

Gull River Crumbs.
Mr. Hor's family came up from Minneapolis last week and will spend the winter in Gull River.

now. The Gull River company intends to put in twenty-two millions this winter, of this place, were married last week and George has been busy setting up the cigars ever since.

Superintendent Fleming brought us a new school teacher last Monday by the name of Chunn. Now if he gets at those big boys and chums them in good shape perhaps it will do them good.

this winter.

To Whom it may Concern.
I am today in receipt from the National Building Loan & Protective Union of the amount of loan applied for about 30 days ago. Considering the papers had to be returned, and we had to wait a short time on the abstract, I consider that they have lost no time in attending to my claim. I am well pleased with the organization, have received the total amount asked for, it being the total amount of my shares, and I trust the Union may continue to grow in favor, as it is certainly worthy of the confidence and patronage of all. Its officers are men of first-class business ability, judging from their manner of doing business and the correspondence I have had with them, and believe them to be men of the strictest integrity.
